3. On Land!

Fijian Culture

A village visit is a highlight of any Fijian holiday where a warm 'Bula' welcome awaits you, learn about the traditional way of life, take part in a Kava ceremony or sample authentic Fijian cuisine at a Lovo Feast and marvel at the ancient ritual of fire walking.

Get Active

Explore caves, go zip lining, hike to a waterfall, go quad biking, chill in a mud bath, go river rafting, kayaking or jetboating.

4. From Above!

Helicopters & Sky Diving

FIJI

The Fijian Islands

THE MANAMUCA ISLANDS

The Mamanuca Islands (pronounced Mama noo tha) lie immediately West of Nadi Bay and Viti Levu, Fiji's largest Island and are easily accessible by boat, or air by sea plane or helicopter. They are set among a paradise of eye-popping reefs with deep blue waters of turquoise and pastel greens. These sand-fringed isles are shared by traditional Fijian villages and 20 modern island resorts each on its own separate island.

YASAWA ISLANDS

The Yasawas are a chain of islands linked together geographically, historically and culturally. Consisting of seven main islands and numerous smaller islets north-west of Lautoka they stretch in a north-easterly direction for more than eighty kilometres and are separated by narrow expanses of what is known as Bligh Water. The Yasawas are a paradise for not only cruisers, yachties, divers, backpackers and of course the Fijian inhabitants, but also those who are looking for an exclusive retreat and total anonymity from the pressures of fame and fortune.

NORTHERN ISLANDS

Our northern region includes the second and third largest islands - Vanua Levu, home to the towns of Savusavu, Labasa, and Taveuni as well as the smaller outer islands of Qamea and Matangi. The principal islands are primarily mountainous with extensive rain forests and fertile lands. They are largely undeveloped and have a smaller tourism infrastructure. The region is home to over a dozen resorts and is easily accessible by plane or ferry. Many of the properties are small and intimate and offer a chance to interact more closely with the people and culture. Deep reefs ring both principal islands and the area is generally acknowledged as one of the best for scuba diving in all of Fiji.

OUTER ISLANDS

If you are willing to travel off the beaten track and enjoy the unspoiled and mostly undiscovered beauty spots, then Fiji's Outer Islands are the perfect place to visit! A slice of heaven on earth, Fiji's "hideaway or getaway" islands are situated away from the main tourism belt and offer the inquisitive visitor an authentic Fiji experience and a selection of resort options for the most discerning traveller.

Know before you go!

WHEN TO GO

Fiji enjoys a tropical island climate all year round. During Fiji's winter months, from May to October, the humidity drops and it's the perfect time for swimming or lazing on white sandy beaches, exploring beneath the waves and discovering the jungle clad inland. Divers and snorkellers will experience increased visibility around the coral reefs.

From November to April, known as the green season, the temperature and humidity starts to climb. This time of the year is often characterised by afternoon showers that bring a welcome respite from the heat. Overall for those wanting a lazy beachside holiday, there is no bad time to visit Fiji.

VISAS & PASSPORTS

A valid passport is required with at least six months validity beyond the intended stay. A visa is not required for Australian passport holders. Travel advice is available from the Australian Government at smartraveller.gov.au.

TIME

Fiji is 2 hours ahead of Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST). Daylight Saving Time is observed from November to January when their clocks are turned forward by 1 hour.

CURRENCY

Fijian Dollar (FJD). ATMs are located in major urban areas. All major credit cards are widely accepted.

TIPPING & BARGAINING

Tipping is not encouraged in Fiji. Bargaining is generally not encouraged, however may be acceptable with some Indo-Fijian merchants.

GETTING AROUND

Take the time to explore and discover as you make your way around Fiji. The standard left hand rule applies to driving in Fiji. The maximum speed limit in villages and towns is 50km/h, with 80km/h in less populated areas.

A current driver's licence from an English speaking country is required while drivers from other countries need an international driving permit.

Fiji is the perfect destination for a driving holiday. While driving distances are short, it is important to note that the winding roads can mean travel times are longer than anticipated.
